

Juuway – the team

James – Head of manufacturing, factory

James graduated from China University of Science and Technology. He worked as a manager in an embroidery factory for many years and became an expert in all kinds of textile machines and industrial engineering. Now he is working as Vice General Manager in the same company with Steven. James got two kids and is a kind of an entrepreneur because he loves to explore new things and to find out the secrets behind them.

